

HISTORIC AMERICAN BUILDINGS SURVEY

INDEX TO PHOTOGRAPHS

HABS
ARIZ
6-CLIFT,
36-

Clifton Townsite
Confluence of Chasa Creek and San Francisco River
Clifton
Greenlee County
Arizona

HABS No. AZ-165

Robert G. Graham, Photographer

October/December, 1993

- AZ-165-1      Overview from High Line Road to the southeast.
- AZ-165-2      Overview from High Line Road to the south.
- AZ-165-3      Overview from High Line Road to the southwest.
- AZ-165-4      Overview from High Line Road to the west.
- AZ-165-5      Frisco Street streetscape, looking south. AZ-166 (Georgia Brown House) at right.
- AZ-165-6      Frisco Street streetscape, looking southeast. AZ-167 and AZ-168 (Archie Morrison Rental Houses) at left.
- AZ-165-7      Frisco Street streetscape, looking north. AZ-170 (Archie Morrison Rental House) at left.
- AZ-165-8      Frisco Street streetscape, looking north. AZ-171 (Becker-Franz Store) at left.
- AZ-165-9      Frisco Street streetscape, looking south. AZ-172 (O. A. Risdon House) at right.
- AZ-165-10      Frisco Street streetscape, looking north near AZ-173 (Georgia Hall House).
- AZ-165-11      Park Avenue Streetscape, looking southeast. AZ-184 (Clifton Water and Improvement Company Building), AZ-185 (Tailor Shop), AZ-186 (Hampton Block), AZ-187 (C. F. Pascoe Undertaking) visible at left.
- AZ-165-12      Smelter site along Coronado Boulevard, looking east. AZ-174 (Arizona Copper Company Smelter Blower House) near center of photograph.
- AZ-165-13      Coronado Boulevard streetscape, looking southeast. AZ-180 (Arizona and New Mexico Railroad Passenger Depot) at left, AZ-178 (Arizona Copper Company Office) at right.
- AZ-165-14      View of Park Avenue to northeast across the San Francisco River. From left to right can be seen AZ-191 (Clifton Mineral Hot Springs Bath House), AZ-192 (Milk Depot) and AZ-193 (Presbyterian Church).
- AZ-165-15      View to the northwest along railroad tracks. AZ-180 (Arizona and New Mexico Railroad Passenger Depot) at left. In the background can be seen, left to right, AZ-178 (Arizona Copper Company Office), AZ-177 (Arizona Copper Company Library Hall), AZ-179 (Park Avenue Bridge) and AZ-183 (La Casa Grande).

- AZ-165-16 Park Avenue streetscape, looking northwest. AZ-191 (Clifton Mineral Hot Springs Bath House) et center, AZ-193 (Presbyterian Church) at right.
- AZ-165-17 View of Park Avenue to north across the San Francisco River. AZ-195 (Arizona Copper Company Manager's House) at right.
- AZ-165-18 Coronado Boulevard Streetscape, looking north. AZ-197 (Shannon Copper Company Store) at right.
- AZ-165-19 View to the north of Riverside Avenue. AZ-196 (J. C. Getti House) et left. Part of AZ-197 (Shannon Copper Company Store) can be seen in group of buildings et right.
- AZ-165-20 Streetscape, South Coronado Boulevard, looking southwest. Right-to-left, AZ-198 (Margaret B. Hill House), AZ-199 (Henry H. Hill House), AZ-200 (Henry H. Hill Rental House), AZ-201 (Otto Rosenthal House), AZ-202 (J. M. Stevens House), AZ-203 (L. J. Dunegan House), AZ-204 (C. W. Beck House), and AZ-205 (F. D. Connor House) face the street.
- AZ-165-21 Streetscape, South Coronado Boulevard, looking northwest. AZ-205 (F. D. Connor House) is the first house on the left.
- AZ-165-22 Alley behind 229-245 South Coronado Boulevard, looking north.